Margaret Ann (Joey) Wilson (Gill)

SEP 14, 1950 - AUG 5, 2020

Margaret Ann (Joey) “Mugsy” Wilson (Gill) died peacefully following a seizure in her Gardnerville home on August 5, 2020 at the age of 70.

Joey, a dedicated Christian who loved Christ, is survived by her Husband David, and her sons Tom and Sean, step-sons Richard and John, 17 Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren, and her two Sisters Mona & Jo and brother Herman.

Joey was born on September 14th in Honolulu, Hawaii. She eventually moved to San Jose, CA with her two young sons Tom and Sean. Her love of music and performing brought her all over the country: from San Jose to Hendersonville, NC, Henderson, NV, Reno, NV and San Diego, CA. She served in the Army as an administration specialist.

In 1987 she met and married her love, David Wilson in San Diego, CA, She became mom to Richard and John. David and Joey eventually settled in Gardnerville, NV with their Jack Russel Terrier Max.

Joey has entertained thousands over the years. She was truly happy performing for crowds large and small. She was an accomplished drummer, a great guitar player, and singer/songwriter. She competed nationwide in the Veterans Administration Creative Arts Festival, winning the first place gold medal in 2013.

A funeral is scheduled for Friday, August 14, 2020 at noon at Eastside Memorial Park 1600 Buckeye Road Minden, NV 89423. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Joey’s life. Flowers and condolences may be sent to Eastside Memorial Park.
