Buck and I became very good best friends/buddies in the early 1960s when we both lived and hung out and shot the breeze together in the East Wake Robin neighborhood and surrounding areas in and around Chesterton, Indiana. Our friendship continued long-distance after my family's move to Seymour, Indiana in the early 1970s, and as roommates and buddies at Purdue, and on from there. I miss you forever, Buck!!!!Dave Kearney

Buck was my best friend, more like a brother. I met buck in 1977 in Barstow Calif. I was in a local band and saw him playing with a band with the name "Generation Gap" who was a traveling band that stopped in Barstow and continued living there for a few years. I met him when I saw the band playing a local club and I asked if I could play a couple tunes with them. He said with a sense of humor attitude, "are you any good" well Buck you must have seen something there because we continued a musical partnership for years to come. I love you Brother, and I will miss you for the rest of my life.
